

Wolcott Public Library Circulation Policy

Wolcott Public Library cards are free of charge to Wolcott residents. Proof of residency is required. Wolcott residents should bring a photo ID with their name and their permanent Wolcott address (such as a driver's license) or a photo ID with their name and an additional official piece of mail (such as a utility bill) with their permanent Wolcott address.

We will fill out and keep on file a signed application form.

Non-residents who wish to borrow from the Wolcott Public Library must have an up-to-date library card from their home town.

We ask that you present your library card in order to borrow items.

You are responsible for all items checked out on your card.

There is a $3.00 fee to replace a lost card.

Those under eighteen (18) years of age must have a completed application signed by the parent or legal guardian with whom they reside.

Institutional cards will be issued free of charge to any daycare center, group home, or other institution located in Wolcott. A request for an institutional card must be made in writing on official letterhead and be signed by the officer who will assume responsibility for paying fines, replacement charges, and other financial assessments levied against the card. An application form must also be filled out and signed by the officer and will be kept on file at the library along with the library card.

The card is for use at the Wolcott Public Library only.

A total of fifteen (15) Wolcott items may be checked out on one card, five (5) of which may be DVDs.

Items that are returned damaged that can no longer circulate will be billed at the cost of replacement.

If any part of an item's packaging is lost or damaged, the cost of replacement of the part will be charged.

Through the Connecticut reciprocal borrowing program, your Wolcott library card may be used at any public library in Connecticut. Generally, any materials borrowed from the Wolcott Public Library may be returned at any other public library in Connecticut. Conversely, any materials borrowed from other public libraries may be returned to the Wolcott Library. We do ask that certain interlibrary loan materials, electronics and museum passes be returned directly to the Wolcott Library.

Per Connecticut General Statutes Section 11-25(b) all circulation and patron registration information is confidential. Access to this information by other than authorized library staff is possible only with a properly authenticated subpoena. Patrons may access only their own circulation records.

As the library's collection changes, this policy will be amended by the library director or their designee
